Dear Coleman Supporter:

John A. Coleman Catholic High School opened its doors 44 years ago as a co-ed high school under the Archdiocese of New York. In 2001, the New York Archdiocese withdrew its financial support for the school. A group of dedicated parents, alumni and community members banded together to keep Coleman alive. Since then Coleman has thrived as an independent school dedicated to educating a diverse student population of all faiths. For 44 years, Coleman has graduated thousands who have gone on to become successful business people, community leaders, while some have returned to lead the future of Coleman. Through the efforts of alumni, faculty, clergy, and members of our community Coleman Catholic continues the mission of Respect, Responsibility and Religion.

This year we have the privilege of honoring four individuals and one family who have made an enormous impact on the Coleman Community. The Hall of Fame Tribute Dinner which will be held on March 3, 2012 at the Hillside Manor will honor:

THE KNOTT FAMILY
MRS. SOFIA REUNER
MR. LESTER LOMBARDI
MR. ALEX ALBANY
BISHOP DOMINICK J. LAGONEGRO

We are asking for your support by placing an ad in the 2012 Hall of Fame Commemorative Journal. Proceeds from this event will benefit the John A. Coleman Catholic High School Scholarship Fund. This fund provides tuition assistance to enrolled Coleman Students. Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,
Hall of Fame Dinner Committee
